

Poetry Writing Directions & Guidelines

1. Choose either one of the poems you have already drafted (or choose to write a brand new one).
2. Must have the following characteristics:
 - i. Tells a story (narrative poetry)
 - ii. Uses figurative language (at least 3 different types)
 - iii. Has at least 25 different lines
3. You need to have a rough draft, and then do a final draft neatly so we can display these.
 - i. Be creative with how you want to display your poem.
4. On Monday 9/28, you will answer 3 questions about when you turn it in. This will be a part of your poetry grade as well.

Poetry Writing Directions & Guidelines

1. Choose either one of the poems you have already drafted (or choose to write a brand new one).
2. Must have the following characteristics:
 - i. Tells a story (narrative poetry)
 - ii. Uses figurative language (at least 3 different types)
 - iii. Has at least 25 different lines
3. You need to have a rough draft, and then do a final draft neatly so we can display these.
 - i. Be creative with how you want to display your poem.
4. On Monday 9/28, you will answer 3 questions about when you turn it in. This will be a part of your poetry grade as well.